Too wonderful for me, this knowledge, alleluia, alleluia.

This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

Alleluia, alleluia!
Christ has become our paschal sacrifice; let us feast with joy in the Lord.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL John 20: 1 – 9

COMMUNION ANTIPHON:

Christ our Passover has been sacrificed, alleluia;
therefore let us keep the feast with the unleavened bread of purity and truth, alleluia, alleluia.

REFLECTION

The readings testify that if we die with Christ, we will appear with him in glory; And when this wondrous transformation takes place, everything is new; everything is fresh. At Easter we renew our baptismal vows. What is it that we really renounce? Ours is a world of violence, of prejudice, of indifference. Too often we harbour feelings of anger and resentment, of selfishness and disdain. Easter proclaims that Christ has died and has risen; with him we die to all of the wickedness in our lives and in our world, and we set our hearts on higher things, on sincerity and on truth.

Hectorville Parish is a Child Safe and Family Friendly Environment. Our Child Protection Officer's are: Franco Canil (0419 183 936) and Danika Tremonte (0439635454).

FIRST AID KIT is located in Sacristy (where Priests vest) on right hand side.

AN EASTER MESSAGE FROM ARCHBISHOP PATRICK O'REGAN

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ,
Although Jesus had, on more than one occasion, foreshadowed his coming death and resurrection, his disciples were slow to believe that this would actually happen, or understand what this actually meant. (It is always something of a consolation to know that Jesus' closest companions took a while to understand. That is the nature of discipleship: something that gradually unfolds and takes a lifetime to understand and live.)
Little wonder that the resurrection was such a surprise and something rather unexpected for the disciples. One of the difficulties about the whole Easter story is that we are too familiar with it; we know how the story ends; the unexpected ending doesn't catch us by surprise. It can at times fail to surprise us. Yet if we have lived a thorough Lent, Easter ought to surprise us. In Lent we have ploughed, with the Holy Spirit's help, the ground of our lives and have let it lie fallow for the grace of God to fall graciously upon it. Lent is about transformation; about us co-operating with God's grace to renew the living spring of our baptism with us. We are coming to the high-point of the most intense part of that annual pilgrimage of faith, the Easter Triduum. It is so important that nothing can get in its way. The season that began in 'ash' will give way to the Easter 'flame' of the newly lit Pascal Candle, and the 'living spring' of our baptism. All we see from then on is by this Easter light. God is good, good indeed.

Fr. Jeevan, Fr. Pat and the staff would like to wish all members of the Community a Blessed and Happy Easter.
