FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY

TIME Year B

4 July 2021

"Moved by God's love, we the people of Hectorville Catholic Community work for fullness of life and joy for all by living out together our love for God, each other and all God's creation."

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON:

Your merciful love, O God, we have received in the midst of your temple. Your praise, O God, like your name, reaches the ends of the earth; your right hand is filled with saving grace.

1st READING: Ezekiel 2: 2 – 5

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy.

SECOND READING: 2 Corinthians 12: 7 – 10

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me: he sent me to bring Good News to the poor.

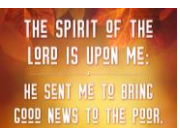

Alleluia!

GOSPEL Mark 6: 1 – 6

COMMUNION ANTIPHON:

Taste and see that the Lord is good; blessed the man who seeks refuge in him.

REFLECTIONS- True believers recognise and admit their human frailty. They also know that genuine weakness does not impede the saving action of God. In fact, God seems to prefer to act where pride and self-satisfaction do not prevail, for such attitudes are obstacles to personal transformation. However, when we open ourselves in humility and honest piety, the power of God can flood our minds and our hearts and shine forth from us to all around. When this happens, there will be no doubt in any mind as to the origin of this wondrous reality. It will be very clear that though it comes through us, it comes from God.

Heal Country

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday 4 July 2021
Visit www.natsicc.org.au to access a variety of resources

Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Sunday on July 4th Every year, Catholics come together across Australia to acknowledge and celebrate the gifts of Australia's First Peoples in the Catholic Church. This year is particularly important following the COVID-19 pandemic and its impact on the ways in which we interacted and made contact with one another. For these resources NATSICC has decided to adopt the NAIDOC theme for 2021: Heal Country. Today our world is in need of healing: socially, environmentally and spiritually. We must all come together as a global community to fight the injustices of inequality, racism and environmental damage. Visit <http://www.natsicc.org.au/2021-atsi-sunday.html> to view resources and get more information. We hope that these resources help your community to begin to Heal and in turn aid in the healing of those in most need. The special collection for National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Appeal will be taken at Masses next Sunday 11th July 2021.

Seeing Christ in Others

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year B)

Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honour except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house." So he was not able to perform any mighty deed there, apart from curing a few sick people by laying his hands on them. He was amazed at their lack of faith. Mark 6:4-6

Jesus' encounter with His own kin in His own town was disappointing. They were amazed at His wisdom and the mighty deeds He performed. But despite this amazement at Him, they "took offense at Him." They took offense because they didn't understand how someone whom they knew well, one of their own kin, could be someone special. They allowed their closeness and familiarity with Jesus to cloud their ability to have faith in Him and to rejoice in His greatness.

We do not have this same struggle in a direct way. But we can still fall into the trap of turning Jesus away as He is present in those closest to us, within our own family and among our close friends. This struggle that Jesus encountered reveals our tendency to look at those closest to us without the eyes of faith. Though Jesus was falsely judged, we can, at times, enter into judgment of those close to us on account of their sins or even our false perception of their good actions. Are we able to see others in the light of truth? Are we also able to look beyond the weakness and sins of others and see the presence and grace of God alive in their lives? Are we able to see their goodness and allow God to speak to us through those closest to us? This can be more of a struggle than we may realize. If it happened to Jesus, it will happen in our families too. The lesson we should learn from this is to identify the temptation to see only the negative in the lives of those closest to us. If we can overcome that temptation, we will be able to focus in on the presence of God alive in their lives. This should be the first and primary thing we seek to discover each and every day.

Reflect, today, upon how well we do see God present in those closest to us. If we do struggle with that, see it as a temptation that we are called to overcome. Discovering the presence of God alive in those around us will help us to grow in love of them and love of God.

Lord, help me to see You in the lives of those closest to me. Help me to rejoice in Your presence and to grow in love of others and in love of You as I see You at work in their lives. Jesus, I trust in You.
