Year B

11 July 2021

“Moved by God’s love, we the people of Hectorville Catholic Community work for fullness of life and joy for all by living out together our love for God, each other and all God’s creation.”

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON:

As for me, in justice I shall behold your face; I shall be filled with the vision of your glory.

FIRST READING:

Amos 7: 12 – 15

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

Lord, show us your mercy and love, and grant us your salvation.

SECOND READING:

Ephesians 1: 3 – 14

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, alleluia!

May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our heart that we might see how great is the hope to which we are called.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mark 6: 7 – 13

COMMUNION ANTIPHON:

The sparrow finds a home, and the swallow a nest for her young; by your altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God. Blessed are they who dwell in your house, for ever singing your praise.

REFLECTIONS- In today’s Gospel Jesus tells the twelve apostles that they should embody three signs: simplicity of lifestyle, dependence on others and hospitality. These instructions are such a contrast to what is often valued today, the rich and powerful, who are thought to be the best leaders. For Jesus, however, the one truly sent in his name is the one who knows that another’s worth comes from who they are, not what they have. It doesn’t matter whether we’re rich or poor. It’s the way we use our money for others which reveals whether our wealth possesses us or not. May our Eucharistic signs of his presence amongst us, the bread and wine, change us today, to match it with the best in being simple in lifestyle, happily dependent and extravagantly hospitable with our time, talent and energy for the sake of the Kingdom of God.

Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Sunday on July 4th
Every year, Catholics come together across Australia to acknowledge and celebrate the gifts of Australia's First Peoples in the Catholic Church. This year is particularly important following the COVID-19 pandemic and its impact on the ways in which we interacted and made contact with one another. For these resources NATSICC has decided to adopt the NAIDOC theme for 2021: Heal Country. Today our world is in need of healing: socially, environmentally and spiritually. We must all come together as a global community to fight the injustices of inequality, racism and environmental damage. Visit <http://www.natsicc.org.au/2021-atsi-sunday.html> to view resources and get more information. We hope that these resources help your community to begin to Heal and in turn aid in the healing of those in most need. The special collection for National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Appeal will be taken at Masses TODAY, Sunday 11th July 2021.

Relying on Providence

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year B)

He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick—no food, no sack, no money in their belts. Mark 6:8

Does God care about the smallest details in our life? Does He care about us receiving proper food and housing? Does He care about our proper emotional, material and spiritual support? He certainly does!

Sometimes it can happen that we fail to realize how completely God cares for us. We can fall into the trap of getting consumed by the fear and anxiety of daily concerns. We can worry that we will not have enough for tomorrow or even today. This worry can concern us regarding all parts of our lives—relationships, emotions, material needs, spiritual strength, etc.

What we need to know, with complete certainty, is that God is attentive to every detail of our lives. He knows all and loves us in such a complete way that He will not abandon us ever. He will never allow us to be without those things we need to live a full and fruitful life.

Do we believe that? At times it can be hard to believe. At times we can feel overwhelmed and believe that we must take care of everything ourselves. It is true that we are called to offer all our energy and talent to God so that He can use us and work through us. But we should never forget that God is ultimately the one taking care of us and is the one most attentive to our every need.

Reflect, today, on the level of abandonment that we have to divine providence. Pray this prayer below and reflect upon how completely we can make it ours. Jesus, I trust in You!

Prayer of Abandonment

*Father,
I abandon myself into your hands;
do with me what you will.
Whatever you may do, I thank you:
I am ready for all, I accept all.
Let only your will be done in me,
and in all your creatures –
I wish no more than this, O Lord.
Into your hands I commend my soul:
I offer it to you with all the love of my heart,
for I love you, Lord, and so need to give myself,
to surrender myself into your hands without reserve,
and with boundless confidence,
for you are my Father.*

Blessed Charles de Foucauld.

THINGS GOD WON'T ASK

- God won't ask what kind of car you drove; He'll ask how many people you drove who didn't have transportation.
- God won't ask the square footage of your house; He'll ask how many people you welcomed into your home.
- God won't ask about the clothes you had in your closet; He'll ask how many you helped to clothe.
- God won't ask what your highest salary was; He'll ask if you compromised your character to obtain it.
- God won't ask what your job title was; He'll ask if you performed your job to the best of our ability.
- God won't ask how many friends you had; He'll ask how many people to whom you were a friend.
- God won't ask in what neighbourhood you lived; He'll ask how you treated your neighbours.
- God won't ask about the colour of your skin; He'll ask about the content of your character.
- God won't ask why it took you so long to seek Salvation; He'll lovingly take you to your mansion in heaven and not to the gates of Hell.
