COMMUNION ANTIPHON:

You have laid down your precepts to be carefully kept; may my ways be firm in keeping your statutes.

REFLECTIONS- A child is one who is dependent, humble and in need. A child cannot take care of his/her own needs. Rather, a child needs the care of parents. So it is with us in our relationship with God. We are not considered great by being independent, powerful, well respected, successful, etc. This is a worldly view of greatness. The Apostles, in this passage, were arguing about who was the greatest. Jesus, in pointing to a child, shows that greatness is not about what you accomplish or the like; rather, greatness is found in becoming dependent upon Christ. Additionally, it is found in seeking out those who are in need (as a child is in need of care) and offering the love and care others need. It's a call to compassion and concern for the poor and needy among us.

Hectorville Parish is a Child Safe and Family Friendly Environment. Our Child Protection Officer's are: Franco Canil (0419 183 936) and Danika Tremonte (0439635454).

FIRST AID KIT is located in Sacristy (where Priest's vest) on right hand side.

We thank you for keeping us close and faithful.

We ask forgiveness for the times we have failed each other and hurt one another by word or action. We ask you to bless us today and always and to continue to watch over us, our family and our home. Let us remember always the strength of our commitment as we exchanged rings on our wedding day.

May our love grow ever deeper and may we always enjoy your peace and blessing in our lives. We make our prayer through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Our Lady and Saint Joseph, pray for us.

Pope Francis: the Sacrament of marriage “is the icon of God’s love for us”

“We were created to love, as a reflection of God and his love. And in matrimonial union the man and woman realise this vocation, as a sign of reciprocity and the full and definitive communion of life”. When a man and a woman receive the Sacrament of marriage, “God is, so to say, ‘mirrored’ in them, he imprints in them the features and indelible nature of His love.

Marriage is the icon of God’s love for us. Indeed, God too is communion: the three Persons of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit have always lived and live forever in perfect unity. And this is the mystery of marriage: God makes married couples into one existence. The Bible uses a strong term: it says one ‘flesh’ only, so intimate is the union between man and woman in marriage. And this is the mystery of marriage: God’s love that is reflected in the couple who decide to live together”.

“The plan inherent in marriage is a truly wonderful! It is expressed in the simplicity, and also the fragility, of the human condition. We are well aware of the many difficulties and trials there may be in the life of a married couple. ... The important thing is to keep alive the link with God, which is at the basis of the matrimonial bond. When a husband prays for his wife, and a wife for her husband, the bond remains strong; each one prays for the other.

It is true that married life has many difficulties: work, there isn’t enough money, there are problems with the children...and often the husband and wife become irritable and argue amongst themselves. There are always arguments in marriages, but we must not be sad about this: this is the human condition. And the secret is that love is stronger than the moments in which we argue, and I therefore always advise married couples never to let the day draw to an end without making peace.

A little gesture is enough: a caress, see you tomorrow, and tomorrow we start afresh. “See, love is possible!” And love is capable of allowing you to live your whole life “in love”: in joy and in sorrow, in sickness and in health, but always going forward. This is life, and we must face it in this way, with the courage of living it together.

Married life is beautiful, and must be protected”...
