GOSPEL

Mark 10: 46 – 52

COMMUNION ANTIPHON:

We will ring out our joy at your saving help and exult in the name of our God.

REFLECTIONS- Throughout this liturgical year we have examined several aspects of our faith. Have we merely acquired some information about the biblical readings, about our religious ancestors, about the ministry of Jesus and the life of the early church? Or have our eyes really been opened; have we been enabled to leave behind whatever prevents us from living the Christian life fully, to abandon our exiles or the trappings of our former lives? Have we accepted more genuinely the Christian responsibilities that are ours as baptised followers of Christ, in our own personal lives, in our families, in our relationships with others, at the workplace? To what degree have we been transformed into Christ?

Jesus, Have Pity!

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B

On hearing that it was Jesus of Nazareth, Bartimaeus began to cry out and say, "Jesus, son of David, have pity on me." Mark 10:47

These words from Bartimaeus, the blind man, present us with the perfect prayer for a few reasons.

First, this prayer reveals the deep humility of Bartimaeus. By praying this prayer, Bartimaeus expresses the fact that he knew Jesus was the source of what he needed and that he was unable to help himself. Bartimaeus knew that he was weak but that Jesus was perfect strength. Thus, Bartimaeus humbly turned to Jesus in his need, recognizing Him as the source.

Second, it is a prayer that cries for "pity." Pity is the feeling of sorrow and compassion caused by the suffering of others. Pity is mercy and is the form of love given to one by another who has no need of giving it. In this prayer, Bartimaeus asks the all-powerful Lord to show him kindness and mercy, even though he is unworthy of such a gift. This prayer reveals the fact that Bartimaeus knew he was undeserving of help from our Lord, but he cried out for it anyway in the hope that Jesus would help. And, indeed, He does.

Third, this prayer reveals a certain and deep passion. It is not just a request for God's help; rather, it is a cry for help. It's a plea and a form of begging. It's an opening up of one's soul to God, without concern of displaying one's own weaknesses or worry that others will witness it or what they'll think. This shows the depth of the blind man's prayer.

Reflect, today, upon these three lessons from Bartimaeus' short prayer. We must be humble, beg for mercy, and do so with deep passion and longing. Praying this way will most certainly dispose us to the grace and mercy of God.

Dear sisters and brothers,

Re: Wearing of Masks in Churches

Grace and peace, I hope this note finds you well. I am writing to clarify an issue that has come to my attention through several parishes.

1. The wearing of masks:
 - a. Please remind your congregations that masks must cover both the nose and the mouth.
 - b. The wearing of masks is mandatory in Churches under the Emergency Management Direction 2021. Penalties apply for non-compliance.
 - c. Provisions exist to accommodate people with health issues however they are required to provide proof they have an exemption.
 - d. Conscientious objection does not apply in these circumstances. An individual can object to wearing a mask and it is our right to refuse entry to our premises. People who refuse to wear masks are prohibited from entering our premises and the Direction allows for the Police to be called in such instances.

I take this opportunity to thank our dedicated COVID Marshals who have provided a very important service during COVID. I also bring to your attention a meeting that is being planned with Leaders of Christian Churches with SA Health officials to further explore the easing of restrictions in our context. This meeting is likely to take place in the next month. I will keep you update in relation to the outcome of this meeting.

If there are any particular questions/issues that apply in your context I encourage you to contact Sarah Moffatt smoffatt@adelaide.catholic.org.au so she may raise these on your behalf at this meeting.

In Domino,

+ Pat O'Regan

The gift of sight: Helen Keller, who went blind and deaf at nineteen months, said: "One day I asked a friend of mine who had just returned from a long walk in the woods what she had seen. She replied, 'Nothing in particular.' 'How was this possible?' I asked myself, 'when I, who cannot hear or see, find hundreds of things to interest me through mere touch. I feel the delicate shape and design of a leaf. I pass my hands lovingly over the rough bark of a pine tree. Occasionally, I place my hand quietly on a small tree, and if I'm lucky, feel the happy quiver of a bird in full song.' The greatest calamity that can befall people, is not that they should be born blind, but that they should have eyes, yet fail to see."
