OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

21 November 2021

“Moved by God’s love, we the people of Hectorville Catholic Community work for fullness of life and joy for all by living out together our love for God, each other and all God’s creation.”

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON:

How worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive the power and divinity, and wisdom and strength and honour. To him belong glory and power for ever and ever.

FIRST READING: Daniel 7: 13 – 14

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

The Lord is king; he is robed in majesty.

SECOND READING: Revelation 1:5 – 8

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, alleluia!

Blessed is he who inherits the kingdom of David our Father; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL John 18:33 – 37

COMMUNION ANTIPHON:

The Lord sits as King for ever.

The Lord will bless his people with peace.

REFLECTIONS- Enthroned in heaven, Christ is revealed as the faithful witness to all that God has done and will continue to do. As first-born from the dead, his resurrection is the promise of our own resurrection. The dominion that he received from God is universal and exclusive and it will last forever. Christ's kingdom is a kingdom of truth and life, of holiness and grace, of justice and love and peace. We need not stand at a distance from him, afraid to approach because of our human vulnerability. He is the one who loved us so much that he handed himself over to suffering and death so that we might live. He has already brought us to birth in this kingdom through Baptism and he has taught us how to live in it. Today we look to that time when his glory will be revealed, when we will all be gathered into the embrace of God, there to sing praise to that glory forever.

Feast of Christ the King and Parish Family Day

Dear Parishioners,

The Holy Catholic Church celebrates the Feast of Christ the King TODAY Sunday, 21st November at the Annunciation Church. As Hectorville Parish, we would like to celebrate this feast honoring Christ as the servant king of us all. This year due to Covid restrictions, there will be no Triduum Masses and Eucharistic procession around the school oval this year. We will only have the Feast Day Mass at 11.00am followed by a barbecue lunch in the school hall. The following needs to be adhered to: -

- There will be separate QR Code Check In/ Sign In sheet for the School Hall.
- Wearing of masks is MANDATORY and please sanitize your hands.

I invite all the parishioners to come together to celebrate the feast of Christ the King. Blessings-Fr. Jeevan Gabriel SMM

VOLUNTEERS MASS AND DINNER

A Thanksgiving Mass for all Volunteers will be celebrated at 6.00pm on Friday 26th November in Annunciation Church followed by a light meal which will be provided in the Hall. For all Parish Volunteers, Committee Members, Readers, Commentators, Extraordinary Ministers, Cleaners, Children's Group etc. Please ring the Parish Office at 83369988 to RSVP and make a note in your diary.

Blessing Of the Cribs Mass

To celebrate the Advent, season this year, there will be Blessing of the Cribs on Sunday, 12 December at the 9.30am and 11.00am Masses at the Annunciation Church. Families are encouraged to bring their cribs and to place them at the steps of the Sanctuary before the start of Mass. For more information, please contact the Parish office on 83369988.

Christmas Star Competition

This is open to all Parishioners- Children, Teens, Young Adults and the Young at heart. You can prepare the stars from any material, colour and design you want. After completion, please place the stars at the side door (on the western side). The stars you have prepared will be used for our Christmas day celebrations in the Church. Participation forms are available at the Church doors today. Competition closes on the 19th of December and the winners will be awarded prizes on Christmas Eve at the 7.30pm Family mass.

Thank you. Parish Office.

Next Sunday we begin the Season of Advent; our time of preparation for Christmas. Therefore, this Sunday marks the end of our current liturgical year. Before we begin the Season of Advent, we are asked to reflect upon Christ our King. When Jesus was asked by Pilate if he was a king, Jesus said that he was a king. So, what sort of king was Jesus?

He was born in a small, poor and unimportant village. His parents were not famous, powerful or wealthy. His first visitors were the poorest of people; shepherds. He never wrote a great novel. He didn't eat or associate with rich or powerful people. He never led an army into battle. He did ask people to take up their cross and follow him. He didn't surround himself with politicians, soldiers or bankers. He did sit and eat with people who were usually despised, ignored and rejected. He reached out to embrace those others saw as worthless and as sinners. He didn't live in a castle surrounded by maids or servants. He did spend his time with the poor, the sick, the broken and all those who were in need of love, healing and compassion. He didn't own anything. He didn't have any riches or wealth that the world thought much of; but he did share his greatness with us; God's love.

The shepherd that is described in the first reading is the king we are asked to follow. This shepherd is one who is caring and compassionate towards us. This shepherd looks for the lost, bandages the wounded and makes the weak strong. This is the shepherd and king we are asked not only to follow, but whose life and example we are asked to live by. Just as he looks after and cares for each of us, so we in turn are to care for each other. Where are we to look for and find Jesus our king today? Jesus is to be found in the hungry, the thirsty, the naked, the homeless, the poor, the rejected and those in prison. We are to turn our attention to each other if we are to find Jesus. This gospel and great feast asks us to draw on the presence of Christ who dwells within each of us so we can reach out to Christ in others, especially those who are poor and those who are in any kind of need.

This gospel is not about some unknown time in the future. This gospel is about each of us and how we follow Jesus here and now. The amazing thing is that on this Feast of Christ our King, both the first reading and the gospel speak about others who need our help and support. Whatever we do to and for each other, we do to and for Jesus. So, if we open our hearts as well our eyes we will see Christ the King in everyone we meet.

So, to you
Christians
I repeat
His name,
to everyone,
I proclaim
Him,
Jesus Christ
is the beginning
and the end,
the Alpha and the Omega.
He is the king
of the new world.
He is the secret
of history.
He is the key to our destiny.
