REFLECTIONS:- This statement from Jesus, that “no prophet is accepted in his own native place,” should challenge us to make sure we do not fall into this tendency. We should do what we can to make sure that we do accept the prophetic witness shared with us from our own family members. The best way to do this is to make sure that we regularly strive to purge any “baggage” we carry in those relationships. Very often, we carry the baggage of hurt, anger and resentment without even realizing it. We also easily focus in on the weaknesses of family members since we easily witness their weaknesses as a result of being close to them. Reflect, today, upon our family and especially, upon whether we allow ourselves to look beyond their weaknesses and sins so as to see the goodness of God at work in their lives. There is much that God wants to say to us through them. Make sure we have not closed that door and are willing to accept them as a messenger of the Gospel.

God is my
salvation;
I will trust
and not be afraid.
