Love in all things

TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY

TIME Year C

9TH October 2022

“Moved by God’s love, we the people of Hectorville Catholic Community work for fullness of life and joy for all by living out together our love for God, each other and all God’s creation.”

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON:

If you, O Lord, should mark iniquities, Lord who could stand?
But with you is found forgiveness, O God of Israel.

FIRST READING: 2 Kings 5:14-17

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

SECOND READING: 2 Timothy 2:8-13

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, alleluia!

For all things give thanks to God, because this is what he expects of you in Christ Jesus.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Luke 17:11-19

COMMUNION ANTIPHON:

The rich suffer want and go hungry,
for we all partake of the one Bread and Chalice.

Reflection

Like the nine lepers who didn't think it necessary to thank Jesus for the healing received, many of us take for granted our innumerable everyday blessings! We seem to move about with a sense of entitlement convinced we are deserving of the blessings received. True happiness lies not in what we receive, but in how we receive. As is evident from Jesus' commendation, 'your faith has saved you', the thankful Samaritan had understood the full meaning of what he had experienced. No doubt, all ten lepers cried out in faith. But only one felt inclined to show gratitude. When in trouble or pain we, like the lepers, desperately seek God and when help does come, be it through family, neighbour or friend, do we bother to thank God and that person? Or do we simply take it for granted. Today, let's take time to count our blessings and be grateful.

What is the Rosary?

The Rosary is taken from the Latin word “rosarium” which means “crown of roses” or “garland of roses”. To us members of the Catholic Faith, the Rosary is a form of prayer that we use along with its namesake prayer beads. When referring to the prayer, the word Rosary is usually capitalized and when talking about the beads, the lower-case form is used.

According to pious tradition, the idea of the Rosary was given to Saint Dominic when the Virgin Mary appeared to him in an apparition in the year 1214.

The Marian apparition is given the title of Our Lady of the Rosary. The Dominican Priest and theologian Alanus De Rupe promoted the practice of the Rosary by establishing the “fifteen Rosary promises” and founding several Rosary confraternities.

Devotion to the Rosary is one of the most distinguishable features of popular Catholic spirituality. The Rosary inspires us to meditate on the mysteries of the lives of Jesus and Mary. Meditation is an important part of our lives as Catholics.

According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, meditation “engages thought, imagination, emotion and desire. This mobilization of faculties is necessary in order to deepen our convictions of faith, prompt the conversion of our heart and strengthen our will to follow Christ”.

In the 16th century, Pope Pius V established the standard fifteen Mysteries of the Rosary which are grouped into three, The Joyful, Sorrowful, and Glorious Mysteries. In 2002 Pope John Paul II added a set of five to the existing fifteen mysteries and these became known as the Luminous Mysteries. Today the total number of mysteries is twenty.

The Luminous Mysteries include the Baptism of Jesus in the Jordan, the Wedding at Cana, Jesus’ Proclamation of the Kingdom of God, the Transfiguration and the Institution of the Eucharist.

Prayer for Diocesan Assembly

Merciful and Loving God, author of our story, animator of our mission, and hope of our future, you have called us to be your family in this place, to discuss the things that matter to us, to discern the path ahead, and to share in the life and mission of your Son, Jesus.

We ask you to make us ready for the work at hand.

Come, Holy Spirit, prepare our hearts,
that we may be filled with compassion, courage and love.

Come, Holy Spirit, prepare our minds, that we may receive your wisdom, dream new dreams, and be open to new ideas.

Come, Holy Spirit, prepare our eyes, that we may see you in one another, perceive the need of our neighbour, and envision new horizons.

Come, Holy Spirit, prepare our ears, that we may hear your voice, listen deeply to the other, and attend to the voice within.

Come, Holy Spirit, prepare our mouths, that we may speak on behalf of the voiceless, cry out for justice, and bear witness to your love.

Come, Holy Spirit, prepare our feet, that we may walk in the footsteps of Jesus, go to the peripheries, and accompany one another on the way.

Come, Holy Spirit, prepare our hands,
that we may embrace our sisters and brothers, heal wounds, and build bridges of peace.

Come, Holy Spirit, prepare our community, that we may be your one body, eliminate borders of exclusion, and welcome all into your love.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.
