Love in all things

THIRTY FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR C

30TH October 2022

“Moved by God’s love, we the people of Hectorville Catholic Community work for fullness of life and joy for all by living out together our love for God, each other and all God’s creation.”

Make haste and come to my help, O Lord, my strong salvation!

FIRST READING:

Wisdom 11:22-12:2

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

SECOND READING:

2 Thessalonians 1:11-2:2

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, alleluia!

God loved the world so much he gave us his only Son,
that all who believed in him might have eternal life.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Luke 19:1-10

COMMUNION ANTIPHON:

You will show me the path of life,
the fullness of joy in your presence, O Lord.

Reflection

Zacchaeus want to ‘see’ Jesus, while Jesus wanted to ‘meet and stay’ with Zacchaeus. The subtle difference in intent between Jesus and Zacchaeus has implications for our relationship with God. God wants to be engaged in our lives, to meet and stay with us where we are, sharing his forgiving love and presence. If we let him into our lives, we will go through a Zacchaeus-experience: everything I have, I am willing to share, to give up everything to receive the giver of all things into my life! From a mere desire to see, Zacchaeus takes Jesus home, regardless of what others think. Without being asked, he declares that he will share his wealth with the poor, not out of selfish motives but obviously moved by Jesus’ love. His life’s priorities straightened out, money was no longer the driving force. All he cared about was to follow Jesus. We can learn much from Zacchaeus in our daily life. When we take one step towards God, He takes several towards us, his children, for he loves us so much.
