Love in all things

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON:

O sing a new song to the Lord, for he has worked wonders;
in the sight of the nations he has shown his deliverance, alleluia.

FIRST READING: Acts 6:1-7

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

SECOND READING: 1 Peter 2:4-9

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

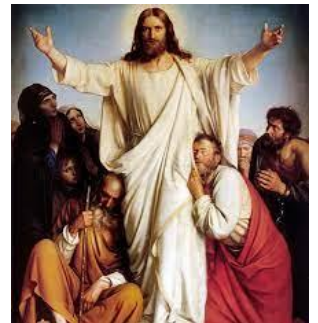

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the way, the truth, and the life, says the Lord;
no one comes to the Father, except through me.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL: John 14:1-12

COMMUNION ANTIPHON:

I am the true vine and you are the branches, says the Lord.
Whoever remains in me, and I in him, bears fruit in plenty, alleluia.

REFLECTION:

Jesus puts before each of us the great command; love one another, just as I love you. And this is more challenging and difficult than it sounds. We are not asked to simply like each other; we are to love each other as Jesus showed us.

As followers of Jesus today, we are called not simply to believe in the resurrection, we are called to live it through the quality of our daily lives, through how we treat each other and speak to one another. Our actions will speak louder than our words. As John of the Cross reminds us, “at the end of our lives, God will not judge us on our earthly possessions and our human achievements but on how much we have loved.”

Hectorville Parish is a Child Safe and Family Friendly Environment. Our Child Protection Officers are Franco Canil (0419 183 936) and Danika Tremonte (0439635454).

FIRST AID KIT is located in Sacristy (where Priest's vest) on right hand side.

Easter House Blessings

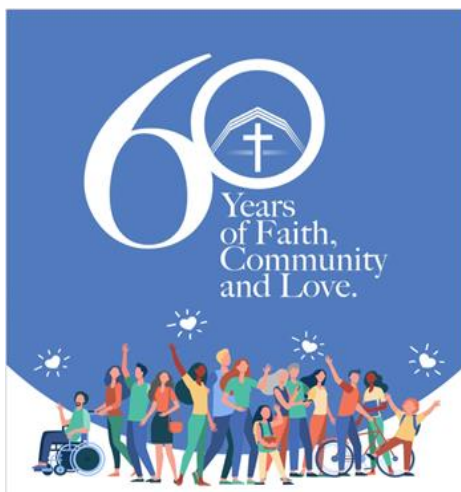

As Catholics we bless all sorts of things: our food, our cars, and our workplaces; but one of the most important things to bless are our homes. And we do this because it’s a way of putting our life into the hands of the Lord. When we bless our home it’s a reminder that Jesus came to live among us, and that we want him to find a home in our home.

So, for the next few Sundays I will leave a sign-up sheet at the back of the Church for you to write your details so I can get in touch and organise a house blessing over the coming months.

-Father Anthony Beltrame

60th JUBILEE

Hectorville Annunciation Church

Join us on July 2 2023 at 11am for a solemn mass by Archbishop Patrick O’Regan, followed by a luncheon, as we celebrate 60 years of Annunciation Church and 160 years of Hectorville Parish

~ The Curate’s Corner ~

Since Easter Sunday we’ve been hearing from the Acts of the Apostles, and we’ve seen that the Resurrection and the sending of the Holy Spirit transformed the broken hearts of the first followers of Christ into hearts set on fire. That these men and women who were once afraid, are now willing to suffer gladly for the sake of the Gospel. And the early Church is powerful, though there is persecution after persecution, it keeps growing. The message of Christ and his death and resurrection cannot be stopped.

So, it's clear that the Catholic Church is no man-made religion, it's God made. And from the beginning it's not just a rabble of men and women, nor is it just a place where likeminded people come to meet. So how did the early Church function? and what did it look like? Because if we wander away from this we wander away from Christ.

The Church

St Paul’s favourite way of describing the Church is to say that it’s the body of Christ. And just as a body is made up of all different parts which come together to form a whole, so the Church is made up of all different people who come together to form the people of God. And all of these parts have great dignity, it’s not like the eye can say to the hand, “I don't need you!” And the head can say to the feet, “I don't need you.” But like a body, the different parts of the Church don’t all serve the same function, and some are called to do what no one else can. Now sadly it won’t make you very popular today to insist upon this, we live in a world which demands equity, sometimes rightly so, but most times to the detriment of God’s plan for our life and for salvation.

Unlike a democracy where the power comes from the people, in the Church all power comes from Christ. He’s the one who acts, leads and guides, and he has all the authority. And he so designed it that the Church has a clear structure and composition to its body. It is made up of Ordained Ministers (Clergy) and the Laity, and while these are equal in dignity and ultimately share the mission of saving souls, they do serve this divine mission in different ways. So stayed tuned in the coming weeks as we look firstly at the role of the Ordained Ministry, and then the call of the Laity.
