REFLECTION:

The Gospel reading for the 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B, gives an account of the vocation of the first four Apostles who followed Jesus. It was a momentous event in the history of salvation. It was the beginning of a stream of vocations that would grow and spread down through the ages until the end of the world. It was momentous, firstly, in that Christ, who had come to open heaven for all men and who could find means of bringing them all to that eternal home without help from any man, decided instead to let men co-operate with him in this divine task. He decreed to set up a kingdom in this world—his Church—which would be run by mere mortals for their fellow-mortals, but which would be under his protection and assisted by his divine aid until the end of time. Christ chose this very human way, in order to make his Church more acceptable to our limited, human understanding and more approachable for sinful, human nature.

PRAYER TO SAN PELLEGRINO
MARTIRE

PREGHIERA
MARTIRE

Glorious S. Pellegrino, our protector, from your glorious throne we ask you to look after your devoted children, who are in such need of your help and support.

Give us the strength and zeal of your faith, so that we do not stray from our beliefs, and as you, become joyful witness of the gospel.

We particularly ask you to help us not to be lured by false hopes throughout the world, but be guided by your example and strengthened by the faith of our fathers, and openly profess that Jesus Christ is the only saviour of the world, the only anchor of salvation.

Oh protector and friend, we ask that your many children of Altavilla and those who worship your glorious name in Australia and other far away places may always be sure of your intercession, for themselves and their families. Amen

Glorious S. Pellegrino, nostro protettore, dal tuo trono glorioso volgiti, ti preghiamo, ai tuoi figli devoti tanto bisognosi del tuo patrocinio ed aiuto.

Dacci il tuo zelo e la forza della tua fede perché anche noi non vacilliamo mai nelle nostre convinzioni e, come te, possiamo essere gioiosi testimoni del vangelo.

In modo particolare, ti preghiamo perché, no ci lasciamo irritare dalle tante chimere del mondo d'oggi ma, seguendo il tuo esempio e rafforzati nella fede dei nostri padri, sappiamo professare apertamente che Gesù Cristo è l'unico salvatore del mondo, l'unica ancora di salvezza.

Ancora una preghiera ti rivolgiamo, nostro celeste amico e protettore: fa che i tuoi figli d'Altavilla e quanti fra essi hanno voluto far conoscere il tuo nome glorioso nella lontana Australia ed in altre terra, possano sperimentare sempre, per i loro cari, la tua potente intercessione. Amen

An urgent Prayer for Peace

God of compassion, we turn to you with heavy hearts as we consider the needs of your family. Israelis and Palestinians, we are all your people, each of us loved by you and called live in peace and justice. We lament the dreadful loss of life, destruction of property and loss of human dignity. We are pained by so much suffering. We beg you to bring healing to this ancient place. Help your people find a way forward. Enable everyone to look each other in the eye, and embrace each other as sisters and brothers, as they find your image in every face. We ask that courage and grace will help create a wiser and more gently future, where everyone has a home. God of wisdom come to our aid. Amen.

Caritas Australia will be turning 60!

Caritas Australia

Please share your love to help communities vulnerable to natural disasters around the world to be ready, respond and recover. The Tongan community urgently needs an evacuation centre and a warehouse to store essential supplies including water, blankets, hygiene kits, family tents and more. This can be made possible with your support. Please give generously to the Caritas Australia Christmas Appeal to support communities in Tonga and other countries around the world that are vulnerable to natural disasters. Together we can help our global family to be ready, to respond and to recover when the next disaster strikes. Donate at www.caritas.org.au/christmas

Reflection & Prayer on today's Gospel

John 1:35-42 - John would have known what he knew by the gift of faith. He would have had true spiritual insight granted by God. We should also be open to the Gifts of the Holy Spirit so as to gain a knowledge and understanding of life that is beyond what mere human reason can acquire by its own effort. These Gifts of the Spirit gave him an ability to live a life sustained by the grace of God. John knew things and understood things that only God could reveal. He loved and revered Jesus with a passion and submission of his will that could only be inspired by God. John knew what he knew only because God was alive in his life leading him and revealing these truths. Commit yourself, this day, to an imitation of John's deep faith and be open to all that God wants to speak to you.

"My precious Lord Jesus, give me insight and wisdom so that I may know You and believe in You. Help me, each and every day, to discover more fully the great and awe-inspiring mystery of Who You are. I love You, my Lord, and I pray that I may come to know and love You all the more. Jesus, I trust in You."

As a priest, I'll die a happy man if I know my parishioners are growing closer to Christ while they're entrusted to my care. And so, to help make sure we're starting the year right, here are some ideas for reading, catechesis, and the kind of encouragement we all need as Catholics. If you were to ask me, "Fr what should I be doing to grow in faith?" my answer will always be: READ THE SCRIPTURES AND GO TO MASS. Now going to Mass is simple enough, we just have to prioritise it, but reading the scriptures is trickier. Yes, the word of God is powerful, and it will help us to love the Lord more than ever before, but it's long and often hard to understand. That's why I recommend The Bible in a year with Fr Mike (find it on Spotify, YouTube, Ascension Press App). This podcast makes it easy, accessible, and attainable for even the most average Catholic to read the whole bible over the course of a year. And thanks be to God for Fr Mike. He backed up his Bible in a year podcast with The Catechism in a year with Fr Mike (find it on Spotify, YouTube, Ascension Press App). Now we can read the whole Catechism of the Catholic Church in a year, and Fr Mike is back with his same incredible explanations, and heart-warming encouragement.

Spiritual Reading: It's also helpful do to some regular spiritual reading. It doesn't have to be a lot, but the saints have walked the way of holiness, so it's worth listening to them. If spiritual reading is new to us, I would stick to what is short and simply written. Try Interior Freedom, and The Way of Trust and Love both by Fr. Jacques Philippe.

For those more accustomed to spiritual reading, here are some longer and more in-depth treatments of the spiritual life: I Believe in Love by Fr. Jean C. J. d'Elbée, and The Fulfillment of all desire by Ralph Martin. Sadly, physical Catholic bookstores don't really exist anymore, so buying good books must mostly be done online. Get the kids or grandkids to help if necessary.

Try <https://veritatis.com.au/> and <https://mustardseed.org.au/shop/>

But maybe we don't like reading that much. Well, that's ok, because there are many YouTube channels and Podcasts which can help us grow. And we can listen to them while we're driving or doing the ironing. For YouTube, search for Word on Fire and Ascension Presents. Both have great Sunday homilies and videos on all sorts of topics about the Catholic life. And for great pro-life content check out Live Action. Finally, for Podcasts tune into All Things Catholic by Dr. Edward Sri, which as the name suggests, talks about all things Catholic, and for women and mothers try Beloved and Blessed by Kimberly Hahn, a podcast helping women to live out their feminine genius.
