for he is the Lord our God.

and endured our suffering.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Mark 1:29-39

COMMUNION ANTIPHON:

Let them thank the Lord for his mercy,
his wonders for the children of men,
for he satisfies the thirsty soul,
and the hungry he fills with good things.

REFLECTION:

Today’s Gospel completes a picture of Jesus’ ministry: preaching, curing the sick, driving out demons, and then moving on to continue this work in another place. Jesus’ compassion and healing of the sick is a sign of the Kingdom of God. The Church continues to extend Christ’s healing presence to others in its ministry to the sick. In the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick, the Church prays for spiritual and physical healing, forgiveness of sins, and comfort for those who are suffering from illness. In today’s Gospel we also notice the importance of prayer in Jesus’ daily life. Jesus rose early in the morning, removed himself from the crowds, and went to a deserted place to pray. When the disciples found him, he told them that it was time to move on. We believe that in his prayers Jesus found guidance and direction from God. We also bring our decision-making to God in prayer, asking for his guidance and direction in our lives.

We Remember...

On 8 January 2024, our Parish and community lost a faithful servant, generous, wise and beautiful man in Peter DePalma. Peter had been involved with the Hectorville Catholic Community for over 30 years. In the early years he spent considerable time on the St Joseph's Hectorville School Board while his boys attended the school. For several years he was also on the Parish Pastoral Council and was involved with the renovations to the Annunciation Church under the guidance of Monsignor David Cappo. Together with Bob Rabbitt, Peter was joint Chairperson for the duration of the repair and renovation work.

Over the years, during the period that Fr Philip Marshall was Parish Priest, Peter's wife Albina was involved with the Baptism Preparation program and Peter was on the Marriage Preparation team. Peter was also a significant contributor and leader in the Cristo Re (Christ the King) Committee holding office as Secretary and Treasurer. With other committee members, Peter helped to organise at least three lunches a year for many years and he was also a significant cornerstone for the Feast of Cristo Re. This Festa was usually held on the last Sunday of November for many years.

In 2003 Peter was awarded a Knighthood by the Vatican for services to the Church. This is the highest award given by Rome and the Holy Father. His title was Knight Commander of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem. Since late 2007 Peter was also a member of the Parish Finance Council and only recently, just before his passing, his opinion was sought in respect of a Parish financial matter. He was extremely grateful to share his opinion and contribute, such was his willingness to assist.

Peter also represented the Annunciation Church at the Campbelltown Council on "Forward Planning" for the area. Peter's service and support of our community will be missed and never forgotten. We thank him and his family for the time he invested in our community and for the many great things he helped us achieve. May you rest peacefully Peter, in God's care.

Making a good confession

Now we're ready to have a look at what happens in confession. Here's a visual explanation of what we need to do and what happens. But before we make our confession, we need to make an examination of conscience. After a while we'll get an idea of the particular areas we struggle, but every now and then it's good to look at the whole of our life. Here are examinations of conscience for adults and children.

Examination of conscience for adults:

- Have I rejected or neglected my faith? Is there any aspect of my faith that I do not accept?
- Have I taken the Lord's name in vain? Have I been superstitious or put my trust in witch doctors or fortune-tellers?
- Have I missed Mass on Sundays or Holy Days of Obligation? Have I been attentive during the Mass or do I wilfully get distracted?
- Have I received Holy Communion with a grave sin on my conscience?
- Have I acted with impatience, anger or jealousy?
- Have I fostered resentments or been unwilling to forgive?
- Have I been verbally or physically violent with others?
- Have I taken part in or encouraged abortion, euthanasia, or any other means of taking human life?
- Have I been involved in a process of IVF? Have I encouraged anybody to do IVF?

- Have I been hateful or judgemental in thoughts or deeds?
- Have I spoken badly about others, engaging in gossip?
- Have I consumed alcohol excessively or taken drugs?
- Have I looked at pornographic content? Have I committed impure acts on my own? Have I been involved in impure acts with someone else? Am I living with someone as if I were married when I am not?
- If I am married, do I put my marriage and my children first? Have I practiced contraception? Am I faithful to my spouse?
- Do I let my work occupy time and energy that family and friends deserve? Have I been honest and diligent in my work?
- Have I been proud or selfish in my thoughts or actions? Have I spent money on my own personal comfort and luxury, forgetting my responsibilities to others and the Church?
- Have I stolen or cheated anyone at work?
- Have I given in to laziness? Have I neglected the responsibility to bring others closer to God through my example and words?
- Have I told lies?

Examination for children:

- Have I said my prayers every day?
- Have I been going to Mass on Sundays?
- Have I taken the Lord's name in vain?
- Have I talked and played unnecessarily at Mass or in the Church?
- Have I been unhelpful at home?
- Was I sometimes selfish or not loving enough to my parents and family?
- Did I obey my parents and teachers? Have I been rude?
- Did I share my things with others?
- Have I been impatient, angry or jealous? Do I lose my temper easily?
- Have I been selfish or insisted on getting my own way?
- Have I been lazy at school?
- Have I done my homework as best as I could? ▪Have I cheated in the exams?
- Have I taken part in fights?
- Have I hurt anyone by speaking badly about them?
- Have I told lies?
- Have I taken anything that does not belong to me?
- Have I broken or damaged things that belong to others?
- Have I encouraged others to do wrong in any way?
- Have I been selfish in my thoughts or actions?
- Have I been jealous of others?
- Have I excluded anyone from games?
- Have I prayed for others and tried to bring them closer to God?
